BLM Uncompahgre Resource Management Plan Advisory Group to Meet

MONTROSE, CO — A public advisory group that will provide recommendations to the Bureau of Land Management Uncompahgre Field Office as it revises its Resource Management Plan will meet for the third time on July 23.

The subgroup of the BLM's Southwest Colorado Resource Advisory Council will meet on Friday, July 23, at the Holiday Inn Express Jordan Room in Montrose at 1391 South Townsend Avenue.

The meeting will begin at 9 a.m. and is scheduled to adjourn at noon. The meeting is open to the public, with a public comment period scheduled for 11 a.m.

The Southwest Colorado RAC subgroup is composed of area residents representing diverse interests within the Uncompahgre Field Office. The seven-member subgroup will provide recommendations to the BLM Southwest Colorado RAC regarding development and implementation of the public lands within the field office.

The Southwest Colorado RAC is one of three advisory councils to BLM Colorado. Composed of 15 members appointed by the Secretary of the Interior, individuals serving in each RAC represent a broad range of public land interests, ranging from environmental to local government to commercial activity. For more information on Colorado RACs, go to www.blm.gov/co and select Resources, then Resource Advisory Councils.
